

Green Hall offers students a lovely accommodation with recently renovated single and double rooms and private baths. Each suite has a television, a VCR, a microwave, and a refrigerator. Each room also has a private telephone, and each student has his own desk, dresser, closet space and storage area. The dormitory also provides students with maid service, coin-operated laundry facilities and other amenities for their use. The dormitory fee includes the cost of two meals each day, breakfast and dinner.

Green Hall is conveniently located in Cambridge near the campus of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. It is within walking distance of a grocery store and several lovely restaurants. It is located near public transportation and is less than 15 minutes to Harvard Square by bus or subway.
